General Rules & Regulations

1. All entries for exhibits, shows, sales or displays during Old Home Week are subject to the Rules & Regulations and any violation will subject the exhibitors to such penalty as the OHW Livestock Committee may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

2. The interpretation placed on any of the rules & regulations of Old Home Week, or the decisions arrived at in regard to any dispute, shall be final. The OHW Livestock Committee reserves the right to interpret all rules & regulations governing the Old Home Week and to make decisions necessary for the success of the show. Any exhibitor, who violates any of the rules and regulations, shall forfeit all premiums that they may be subject to, and will be assessed any other penalties that my deem appropriate. General rules & regulations are applicable to each department of Old Home Week. The rules & regulations contained in this book are the conditions under which all entries are accepted. Exhibitors are urged to study these rules carefully before making application for entries.

3. All applications for entries must be made on the official entry form and please ensure that all areas are completed properly and all requested information is entered. Entry fees must accompany the entry form. These forms are to be received by the OHW Office on or before the specified closing dates since entries could be restricted due to space limitations.

4. Late entries will be accepted with a penalty of $5 per entry. The late charge must accompany the entry form and fee in order to be processed by the Old Home Week office. In case of cancellations due to unforeseen circumstances by the exhibitor, entry fees will be refunded after August 31, 2011. Entry fee refunds will be provided on complete breed entry, not on single entries. A letter stating the reason why cancellation was required must be sent to the OHW office.

5. All exhibits shall be under control of Old Home Week, but solely at the risk of the exhibitor. Old Home Week will not be responsible for damage, injury, loss or theft of or to any exhibit, irrespective of cause of such damage, injury, loss or theft. Each exhibitor will be solely responsible for any loss, injury or damage done to, occasioned by or arising from, any animal or article exhibited by him/her and shall indemnify Old Home Week against all legal or other proceedings in regard thereto.

6. No exhibit deemed unworthy by the judge shall be awarded a premium.

7. Prize Money will be mailed in September, if you have not received your prize money by October 15th, please contact the Old Home Week office. The Livestock Committee reserves the right to prevent an exhibitor from showing or to withhold all or any prize money from an exhibitor in any circumstance in which their opinion justifies such action.

8. Old Home Week will not be responsible for non-payment of prizes (special or otherwise) offered by others.

9. No exhibit will be allowed to compete for a championship or special prize unless it has been shown in a regular class. Only exhibits that have received 1st or 2nd prize in the regular classes will be eligible to compete for championships or special prizes.

Ribbons will be awarded as follows:

1st Red	4th Yellow

Livestock Rules & Regulations

1. Ownership: All animals must be entered in the name(s) of the registered owner(s). Any party loaning animals to another party for the purpose of exhibiting shall be equally responsible with the exhibitor. Except where specified otherwise, all articles or animals entered must be bona fide property of the exhibitor at the time of submitting the entry. In classes requiring animals to be bred and owned by the exhibitor, the name of the breeder must correspond to the name of the owner by the exhibitor, the name of the breeder must correspond to the name of the owner as shown on the pedigree, except in cases where the exhibitor was a member of a firm or partnership and has purchased the interest of the others concerned, or where the exhibitor has been previously associated with the management of the herd and is now owner by virtue of direct inheritance. A joint ownership entry must be made on a separate entry form.

2. Registration of Animals: All purebred males and females of Canadian origin must be recorded in the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation or the herd or stud books of associations operating their own recording systems. The breeder of an animal will be the person recorded as such on the registration certificate. The criteria for being purebred are based on the accepted standards named by the specific breed association.

3. Production of Certificates: Exhibitors are required to provide pedigrees/registration certificates of animals entered in purebred classes upon request. All animals must be properly and legibly tattooed and registered at the time entries close. Certificates will be checked prior to judging. Failure to produce certificates will result in an exhibitor not receiving prize money for the animal(s). Prize money will be paid upon the receipt of certificate(s) if received before August 31st, 2011.

4. Groups: Animals comprising an exhibit in a group class must have been entered and shown in their respective classes for single animals, except in classes where it is permissible to include an animal for which no class for single animals is provided.

5. Stalls: Stalls and pens for livestock will be allotted by the OHW Agriculture Coordinator. Exhibitors installing fittings in a stall do so subject to the Livestock Committee's right to enter the stall and remove such fittings when, in the opinion of management, it is desirable to do so to cope with stabling requirements or to comply with fire safety regulations. It shall be the duty of Agriculture Coordinator to prevent an exhibitor from utilizing too many stalls or pens or from unduly crowding his/her animals; to regulate the use of stalls or pens for purposes other then accommodating animals. Stalls will be assigned at the discretion of the OHW Agriculture Coordinator based on the number of entries an exhibitor brings to Old Home Week. The OHW Agriculture Coordinator's decision is final!

6. Bedding: No bedding will be provided but may be purchased on the Old Home Week grounds. Exhibitors are not permitted to store more than a day's worth of bedding and feed near their exhibit due to space limitations.

7. Manure: Manure must be removed by the exhibitor and taken to the specified containers by disposal. All garbage must be placed in the garbage containers. Exhibitors must bring their own manure carts to move their manure to disposal containers. The committee requests that exhibitors clean up the aisles after their animals. In the Horse Dome, manure and bedding must be completely removed from stalls and put in designated area upon departure.

8. Fitting of Animals: All fitting of animals must be done in the designated areas. No fitting is to be in the aisles during Old Home Week, August 11th - 20th . Failure to comply will result in exhibitor incurring cleaning costs.

9. Arrival & Release of Exhibits: The arrival and release times are listed in each section. These times are to be followed unless a request for permission for late arrival and/or early release. The application form, which is in this package, must be completed and returned with entry form.
