Livestock Rules & Regulations

1. Ownership: All animals must be entered in the name(s) of the registered owner(s). Any party loaning animals to another party for the purpose of exhibiting shall be equally responsible with the exhibitor. Except where specified otherwise, all articles or animals entered must be bona fide property of the exhibitor at the time of submitting the entry. In classes requiring animals to be bred and owned by the exhibitor, the name of the breeder must correspond to the name of the owner by the exhibitor, the name of the breeder must correspond to the name of the owner as shown on the pedigree, except in cases where the exhibitor was a member of a firm or partnership and has purchased the interest of the others concerned, or where the exhibitor has been previously associated with the management of the herd and is now owner by virtue of direct inheritance. A joint ownership entry must be made on a separate entry form.
2. Registration of Animals: All purebred males and females of Canadian origin must be recorded in the Canadian Livestock Records Corporation or the herd or stud books of associations operating their own recording systems. The breeder of an animal will be the person recorded as such on the registration certificate. The criteria for being purebred are based on the accepted standards named by the specific breed association.
3. Production of Certificates: Exhibitors are required to provide pedigrees/registration certificates of animals entered in purebred classes upon request. All animals must be properly and legibly tattooed and registered at the time entries close. Certificates will be checked prior to judging. Failure to produce certificates will result in an exhibitor not receiving prize money for the animal(s). Prize money will be paid upon the receipt of certificate(s) if received before August 31st, 2011.
4. Groups: Animals comprising an exhibit in a group class must have been entered and shown in their respective classes for single animals, except in classes where it is permissible to include an animal for which no class for single animals is provided.
5. Stalls: Stalls and pens for livestock will be allotted by the OHW Agriculture Coordinator. Exhibitors installing fittings in a stall do so subject to the Livestock Committee's right to enter the stall and remove such fittings when, in the opinion of management, it is desirable to do so to cope with stabling requirements or to comply with fire safety regulations. It shall be the duty of Agriculture Coordinator to prevent an exhibitor from utilizing too many stalls or pens or from unduly crowding his/her animals; to regulate the use of stalls or pens for purposes other than accommodating animals. Stalls will be assigned at the discretion of the OHW Agriculture Coordinator based on the number of entries an exhibitor brings to Old Home Week. The OHW Agriculture Coordinator's decision is final!
6. Bedding: No bedding will be provided but may be purchased on the Old Home Week grounds. Exhibitors are not permitted to store more than a day's worth of bedding and feed near their exhibit due to space limitations.
7. Manure: Manure must be removed by the exhibitor and taken to the specified containers by disposal. All garbage must be placed in the garbage containers. Exhibitors must bring their own manure carts to move their manure to disposal containers. The committee requests that exhibitors clean up the aisles after their animals. In the Horse Dome, manure and bedding must be completely removed from stalls and put in designated area upon departure.
8. Fitting of Animals: All fitting of animals must be done in the designated areas. No fitting is to be in the aisles during Old Home Week, August 11th - 20th. Failure to comply will result in exhibitor incurring cleaning costs.
9. Arrival & Release of Exhibits: The arrival and release times are listed in each section. These times are to be followed unless a request for permission for late arrival and/or early release. The application form, which is in this package, must be completed and returned with entry form.
10. Sick Animals: The OHW Livestock Committee reserve the right to refuse admission of any animal showing evidence of infections or contagious diseases or other reasons. The OHW Committee reserves the right to have all livestock examined by a veterinarian if deemed necessary.
11. Show attire: All exhibitors shall be neatly dressed throughout Old Home Week. All Exhibits must display an Exhibitor Sign and information cards for each animal that is exhibited.
12. Exhibitors' Passes: Passes are available to all exhibitors. Please fill in the number required and include payment with entry fees. Exhibitor passes are $20 before July 31 and will provide admission for 1 person for the entire week. The passes will be $25 after August 1st. Day admission during Old Home Week is $9 for adults, $5 for kids age 6-12 and 5 and under if Free!
13. Exhibitors' Parking: Old Home Week has parking for livestock trailers at the back of the Park Street Parking

Lot - please park as far back on the grassy area as possible. There is a parking lot on Park Street available for exhibitors for a daily or weekly fee. The parking spots on the Old Home Week grounds (if any) are reserved for Handicap parking only. Vehicles parked on site after 9am WILL BE TOWED AT THE OWNERS EXPENSE WITH NO WARNING

14. Exhibitors' Gates: The Exhibitors' gate is located on Kensington Road. This gate is to be used for arrivals, releases and deliveries only. Deliveries are to be made between 7-9AM. A walk in gate is located on Park Street across from the parking lot.
15. Substitutions: Two substitutions are allowed within a section per exhibitor and must be made at the OHW office upon arrival.
